

Black Swamp Safety Council

Committed to Safety!

Leadership that "Gets It" Award Winners

The Leadership that "Gets It" award was developed to recognize companies whose leaders show their support and understanding of safety and the importance of a safety program in their organizations. The 2010 award winners are listed below:

1st Place

Sauder Village, located in Archbold, OH is the recipient of the first place recognition. In announcing the award, Black Swamp Safety Council President Bill Priest stated, "Sauder Village was selected because of the extraordinary journey they have taken to become an organization that truly embraces safety at every level; for employees and guests, at work and at home, utilizing creative approaches and individual responsibility."

Shown accepting for Sauder Village is Dawn Hauter, Gary Stuckey and Debbie David with BSSC President Bill Priest.

2nd Place

Spangler Candy Company, Bryan, OH, received the second place award. They were recognized for their safety strategic plan and company involvement with their Safety Audit Team.

Accepting above for Spangler Candy Co. is Scott Davis, Security & Safety Manager.

3rd Place

Oldcastle Precast, located in Napoleon, OH, received third place honors for their extensive health and safety policy and the documentation that demonstrates the effectiveness of their practices and procedures that support the policy.

Ian Marten, Plant Manager is shown accepting the award for Oldcastle Precast.

22600 State Route 34
Archbold, OH 43502

Judy Preston
Executive Director
Bill Priest
President